Overview of Hakone Sightseeing Cruise

The Hakone Sightseeing Cruise runs using the three ships “Royal II”, “Victory”, and “Vasa”. It allows you to enjoy grand views not only of Lake Ashi, but also of Mt. Fuji and other scenery throughout the year, so feel free to board whichever pirate’s ship you like and find your own treasure!

Royal II

“Royal II” Since 2013

The Royal II is modeled on the great battle ship “Royal Louis” which was French navy fleet flag ship and built in 18th century in French. It recreates the atmosphere of the ship with its figurehead, interior, exterior, and aft characteristic gallery.

Passenger capacity	565	Seats	306	(First class cabin: 111 Economy class cabin: 195)
Facilities	Elevator, store (1F), rest room (1F), multi-use rest room (1F), observation deck, wheelchair space, 3D art (1F)

Victory

“Victory” Since 2007

The Victory is modeled on the symbolic British battle ship “Victory”, which was built in 18th century and took part in many historic sea battles. Even now, the model ship is preserved and on displayed as a memorial ship in the UK.

Passenger capacity	500	Seats	257	(First class cabin: 91 Economy class cabin: 166)
Facilities	Elevator, store (1F), rest room (1F), multi-use rest room (1F), observation deck, wheelchair space

Vasa

“Vasa” Since 1991

With its luxurious sculptures on display, the Vasa is modeled on a Swedish ship of the same name which was named after Sweden's first king and was built in the first half of the 17th century by Sweden's king Gustavus Adolphus, who was known as the Lion of Scandinavia as he struck fear into the surrounding countries.

Passenger capacity	650	Seats	351	(First class cabin: 152 Economy class cabin: 199)
Facilities	Store (2F), rest room (1F) observation deck
